Summary: John Phoenix goes on vacation and meets yet another legendary defense attorney!

Chapter 1*: John Phoenix Goes to France

John Phoenix was at the airport of London with his uncle, Phoenix Wright. He was ready to go home but he was tired after beating the Kuraudo Ooishis, the fathers of Dylan Fitchar. He decided his visit to London was far too stressful to count as a vacation so he decided to go somewhere else.

However they had already bought tickets to America and America is full of stupid people who hate vaccines and they didn't want to buy another ticket so they got in a rowboat and rowed across the sea.

Eventually, they made it to the north coast of France. There is a port here that is good for transport of goods and makes trade easier, which helped develop the country and is a reason why Paris is situated to the north of the country, alongside the land being flat and easy build on among other reasons. John Phoenix knows this because he's smart.

John Phoenix and his uncle went sight-seeing, first up was of course the Eiffel Tower. However, when they got there, somebody fell over and died!

Uncle Phoenix screamed!

"Uncle, don't look suspicious!" said John Phoenix, but it was too late. Uncle Phoenix did suspicious things so the police arrested him. John Phoenix sighed, he would have to defend him.

John Phoenix searched the crime scene and found a note, but he couldn't read it since it was in French.

The next day, the trial began.

"The court is in session for the trial of Monseieur Phoenix Wright," said the judge.

"Phoenix killed the man," said Dylan the prosecutor.

"OBJECTION!" shouted John Phoenix. He presented the note. It was a bluff, but it was the only evidence he had, so he knew by process of elimination that it was right.

Dylan took the note and translated it for John Phoenix.

"The note says "I am Phoenix Wright and I killed the victim," said Dylan.

But then, the doors swung open!

"UN MOMENT!" shouted a man in a green suit and black combed-over hair. He swiped the note out of Dylan's hand and displayed it to the court. "The note does not actually say Phoenix Wright did it. It actually says... the JUDGE did it!"

"NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOON!" screamed the judge while pounding his gavel really fast. "I am sorry. I tried to frame Phoenix and enlisted the help of Dylan Fitchar, but, clumsy fool that I am, I left my written confession at the crime scene. If only I hadn't dropped it while I made my escape."

The judge got arrested but Dylan Fitchar ran away.

After the trial, John Phoenix met with the man in green.

"You saved my case! Who are you?" said John Phoenix.

"I am Jean Phoenix! It is zee honor to help you, John Phoenix."

The two exchanged a handshake of peace and friendship and John Phoenix went home, proud to have met so many legendary defense attorneys during his travels abroad.
