Summary: John Phoenix tries the game everyone on Twitter's playing, Wordle!

Chapter 1*: John Phoenix Plays Wordle

It was a rainy night in Los Angeles so John Phoenix was sitting by the fire soaking in the atmosphere.

Suddenly, the atmosphere was ruined when Uncle Phoenix started wailing really loudly! John Phoenix covered his ears and ran to the office where Phoenix was sitting at the desk crying.

"UNCLE PHOENIX STOP CRYING!" shouted John Phoenix. So Uncle Phoenix stopped crying because Uncle Phoenix is a good uncle who does what he's told.

"Good," said John Phoenix. "Now, WHY were you crying?"

"I was playing a game and I lost," said Phoenix.

"UNCLE PHOENIX!" shouted John Phoenix. "The desktop is for WORK not GAMES!"

"I'm sorry John Phoenix..."

"I forgive you," said John Phoenix. "You may continue playing your game."

"I can't John Phoenix I already lost it I have to wait til tomorrow."

"Tomorrow is in 5 seconds," said John Phoenix and then it struck midnight and Phoenix could play it again.

But John Phoenix sat down next to him.

"I will help you win so I don't have to listen to you crying again."

John Phoenix went onto the game it was called Wordle.

"Okay John Phoenix the rules are you have to guess a five letter word you have six chances when a square turns yellow it means the letter is in the word but the wrong place. Green means it's the right letter in the right place. Green means good because that's what John Phoenix wears!"

"How is that supposed to help," said John Phoenix. "Just use your psychic powers to deduce the answer. Why make it so overly complicated?"

John Phoenix put in the word "RAINY" because of the rain outside and all five squares turned green and he won in one try!

"Wow John Phoenix very impressive!" said Phoenix.

John Phoenix smirked. This was fun. He wanted to play some more but the game only updates every 24 hours. There were many clones on the internet that let him play it forever but he had no business with these cheap copies, he would only accept the real deal made by whoever it was that made it. But then he realized that this depended on his time zone!

"Uncle, we are going to Japan!"

John Phoenix went to LA Airport, he had a bad history with this establishment but he needed more Wordle in his life. He got on the plane and Cammy Meele tried to kill him but he defeated her and then they got to Japan.

"Oh hi John Phoenix what're you doing here?" said Ryunosuke.

"I'm here to play tomorrow's Wordle! Except today because I'm impatient."

"Oh okay," said Ryunosuke and he gave him his computer that was invented by Herlock Sholmes.

John Phoenix made his first guess!

But it was wrong?! All five spaces were gray! He tried another word and this time he got C in the first space which was correct. He tried again and again but in the end, he failed!

"YOU LOST!" shouted Wordle. "The correct word was "CRIMP!"!"

"OBJECTION!" shouted John Phoenix. "THAT'S NOT FAIR! What even is a crimp? CRIMP IS NOT A WORD!"

"Prove it, fuckhead," said Wordle.

"Okay!" John Phoenix summoned a portal and Susato fell out.

"Ouch! What happened," said Susato.

"Susato give me your book, that thing's got everything in it!"

"Oh of course," Susato gave John Phoenix her book and he skimmed through it all.

"Well, look at that! Not a single mention of the word "crimp!" EXPLAIN YOURSELF, WORDLE!"

"B-But I pulled that word from my dictionary! How can it be wrong?"

"Because that dictionary was TAMPERED WITH!" shouted John Phoenix. Then he sent the wordle developer a virus and hacked into his webcam and turned it on and it displayed his face on Ryunosuke's computer for all to see.

"DYLAN FITCHAR!" shouted John Phoenix.

Dylan Fitchar ran away and John Phoenix's perfect win streak was restored!

The End
