Summary: John Phoenix solves a mystery before he can even get out of bed!

*Chapter 1*: John Phoenix Turnabout Mystery

John Phoenix was sleeping like a log in the bed of John Phoenix. Do logs sleep? Probably not, since they are not sentient. So I guess he wasn't sleeping like a log. He was sleeping like a sleeping person.

But then he stopped sleeping like a sleeping person when the phone rang. John Phoenix did not mind. He was dreaming about being the best defense attorney in the world but he's the best defense attorney in the world in real life too so his dream world is no different to the real world.

He stretched his arm over to the table and answered the phone.

"Hello!" said John Phoenix.

"Hey pal, there's been a murder and we're not sure who the killer is," said Gumshoe.

"It was Dylan."

"Thanks, pal!"

John Phoenix smirked as he put the phone on the table and rolled back over to sleep. Another mystery expertly solved.

He dreamed about Dylan Fitchar running away.
