*Chapter 1*: John Phoenix in AI: The Somnium Files

John Phoenix was at a hospital visiting the victim in a case he was working on.

"John Phoenix who do you think put Sopor Somna in a coma?" said Phoenix (Sopor Somna is the name of the victim).

"I don't know yet, Uncle," said John Phoenix. "This case is more difficult than usual because the culprit was careful and removed all the evidence from the crime scene. That at least means we can rule out Dylan."

John Phoenix stared into Somna's closed eyelids. Just what did this poor old man see before he was placed in this critical condition?

Just then a guy with blond hair and a fake eyeball walked in.

"Hello I'm John Phoenix," said John Phoenix. "Introduce yourself before you walk in here you brute!"

"Ohhhh, sorry! My name's Kaname Date and-" before Date could finish the nurse walked in and she had massive tits and he went "ooohihooooo!" until his eyeball told him to stop.

"Uncle Phoenix this man is foolish, let's leave," said John Phoenix and they went to the crime scene.

The crime scene was a park and there was an inspector wearing a mask over his face to protect himself from coronavirus so John Phoenix couldn't make out his face.

"Let's ask questions John Phoenix!" said Phoenix Wright and that's what they did.

"Hey what's your name?" said John Phoenix.

"I'm Kagami don't forget it," said the inspector.

But John Phoenix did not commit to remembering this name, there was something funny about this inspector and he suspected he had just been given an alias. That means Kagami isn't actually his real name. Kagami is an alias, AKA a pseudonym. John Phoenix did not care to know his real name though.

John Phoenix inspected the bench and found Somna's fingerprints on it, apparently he was nodding off to sleep when someone smacked him on the head!

The suspect was Gina Lestrade because she steals from people and Somna's wallet was empty.

It obviously wasn't Gina though but who did it?

Kaname Date walked over.

"Hey I got an idea," said Date. "Let's take the body to our lab and we can take a look at his dreams!"

"What do you mean? It's preposterous to think anyone could do that!" said John Phoenix.

"Well seeing is believing let's go," said Date.

Date brought John Phoenix, Phoenix and the inspector to a room with a big machine in the middle and a green man walked over.

"Ah Date I'm glad you're here," said Pewter. "I've just upgraded the Psync Machine so you can exist in the somnium world forever now!"

"Wow that's great now I don't have to be afraid of dying any more!" said Date.

"Ahahaha yes it was VERY expensive but I'll bet my buttocks it will be worth it," said Pewter.

They strapped Somna into a chair and Date was going to get into the other.

But then John Phoenix sprang on it!

"I'll do it. I read a book on how to do this while you were setting up so I'm now an expert and better than you."

"Oh thanks John Phoenix appreciate it," said Date.

"Very well John Phoenix let's begin," said Pewter.

John Phoenix closed his eyes and then he was transported into Somna's dream!

The dream showed Somna sitting on a bench and a man ran up to him and hit him!

But the man was wearing a mask.

Strange. Just who could this mysterious assailant be?

John Phoenix stepped forward and noticed there was a cloth covering a rock.

John Phoenix removed the cloth from the rock and at the same time the mask came off the man's face!

THE MAN WAS PEWTER!

"OH SHIT!" shouted Pewter who forgot he was the culprit and he tried to close the exit so John Phoenix would be trapped in the somnium but Date shot him in the shoulder with his gun!

John Phoenix returned to the real world and confronted Pewter.

"Pewter! You are the culprit! The victim saw your face!"

"N-Now now, perhaps the culprit simply looks like me," said Pewter. "Why would I even want to kill this guy anyway?"

"It's obvious, you wanted his money! And when you got that money, you used it to upgrade the Psync machine!"

"PROVE IT!" shouted Pewter. "YOU'LL NEVER PROVE I DID IT!"

"I don't know about that Mr. Computer," said the inspector.

"Yo it's you!" said Date. "Uhh, what was your name again?"

"It's Kagami," said the inspector. "Or, should I say..."

The inspector removed his mask.

"AAAAH don't get us all sick man!" said Date.

But he wasn't sick. He was STORM SENTE!

"Storm!" said John Phoenix. "I knew I recognized Austin Lee Matthews' voice!"

"Yes it is I," said Storm. "And now I am going to solve this case with the power... of concatenation!"

"Concentration? How will that help?" said Date.

"Consider that Pewter tried to kill our victim to upgrade his machine. To achieve his goal, he had to steal his money from the victim. Now let us also remember that the victim's fingerprints were found on the bench, meaning he wasn't wearing gloves. In other words..."

"The victim's fingerprints should also be on the money!" said John Phoenix.

"N-NO!" said Pewter but they called the guys who sold him the equipment that upgraded the machine and they found Somna's prints on some five dollar notes.

"I'm sorry," Pewter cried. "It was for the good of mankind!"

At that moment Sopor Somna woke up so Pewter didn't get arrested.

The End!
