Chapter 1*: John Phoenix Goes to Rex Foster's Hideout

John Phoenix was relaxing in Room 202 of Cape West Apartments with Kyle Hyde and Louie DeNonno. Louie was reading dirty magazines and Kyle was playing a video game about Pinkie Rabbit. John Phoenix was meditating. After ten minutes of this, the door buzzed. Kyle answered it and Rex Foster came in.

"How's it goin' Kyle," said Rex.

"Rex, you've got wiretaps placed around the building, don't you?" said Kyle.

"H-How dare you accuse me of that!" said Rex, and the atmosphere got intense.

"Don't play dumb, Rex. I'm onto you," said Kyle, and he dismantled his telephone and pulled out a device that shouldn't be there. "You're spying on everyone in this apartment!"

Kyle and Rex glared at each other up close and Rex gave up.

"You're right Hyde, there's no point hiding anything from you," said Rex.

"Okay I want to see the devices you set up in Dylan's room.

"Whatever you say," Rex grunted.

John Phoenix, Kyle and Louie followed Rex to his hideout and he turned on his computer, since Dylan was more dangerous than most people in the building Rex had also installed a spy camera in his teddy bear.

The footage showed someone come into Dylan's room and he had a face neither John Phoenix, Kyle nor Louie recognized. He reached under the bed and put something in his sack.

"Who the hell is that?" said Kyle.

Then the guy also reached toward the screen and stole Dylan's teddy bear too.

"Ha," said Rex. "That will prove to be a fatal mistake!"

Rex fast-forwarded the recording, it was mostly black since the teddy bear was in a dark sack but eventually it got brighter and the man took the bear out and left it staring out the window.

"I know that place! I went there in my third game!" said Kyle. "That is Blood Edward Island!"

"Damn straight, we gotta go there now!" said Louie.

"No you will not," said Rex.

"WHAT!"

"Now that you know where my hideout is... I can't let you leave alive!"

Rex threw a punch at Louie but then John Phoenix knocked him out.

"Let's go to Blood Edward Island!"
