*Chapter 1*: John Phoenix Goes to the Bar

John Phoenix was walking home from Hotel Dusk after finding the red box with Kyle Hyde. Louie stayed at the hotel cause it was his home.

Why were they walking, you ask? Why not take the car?

It's cause Kyle ran out of gas.

"Sorry again, John Phoenix," Kyle scratched the back of his head.

John Phoenix ignored him. John Phoenix was getting tired, and conveniently, they had just reached a bar so they decided to go in.

"Welcome customers what can I get ya," said the bartender.

"Louie what the hell are you doing here?" said Kyle.

"Check it, my man! The bar at the hotel's not the only one I'm runnin'," said Louie. "Which sucks cause I gotta work two jobs but at least it's fun!"

Just then some goons broke down the door!

"Fifty bottles of booze, make it snappy, barman!" the leader commanded. Louie anxiously filled the glasses and handed them to the customers but then John Phoenix stood in the way of his hand.

"Whatcha want boy," said one of the guys. "Yer lookin' a bit young for that, har har!"

"You don't deserve this glass," said John Phoenix. "NOT UNTIL YOU SAY PLEASE!"

John Phoenix kicked the gangsters' asses and threw them onto the road.

"You fucker, we'll remember this!" shouted the gangsters and they ran away.

John Phoenix noticed a business card on the ground and picked it up.

It said "Nile."

"What A?!" shouted Kyle. "Nile's still in business!"
